

citylife recommends

ALTO LONDON

This 1920s themed premier members club is a unique masterpiece in originality and design. Alto London caters to the elite socialite; professional people who enjoy refinement and finesse, and want to unwind in comfort. Great for product launches, high profile events, Christmas or Corporate Parties, you can be assured that Alto will surpass all expectations.

Alto London
15-21 Ganton Street, W1F 9BN
020 7734 6696
www.clubalto.com

THE LAUNCH COLLECTION

Brigid Strevens new luxury furniture label combines striking combinations of colour, pattern and texture, to bring piece to life and create a distinct character. Influenced by a range of sources from contemporary art, architecture and fabrics, Brigid Strevens has created five uniquely individual tables, which will add colour and glamour to any home.

Brigid Strevens limited edition tables and commissions are priced from £2,850
www.brigidstrevens.com

THE BALCONY GARDENER

The brand new Charles Tyrwhitt store has opened in Canada Place showcasing both menswear and womenswear. Classic English, Italian and our contemporary Black Label suits remain a staple of the Tyrwhitt collection. Shown is the Blue Sharkskin English Suit Jacket. Please ask in store for details.

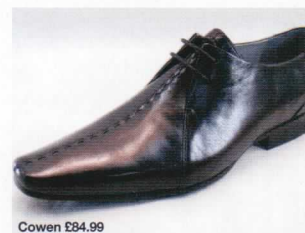

www.ctshirts.co.uk

KATE KUBA FOR MEN

Kate Kuba is proud to announce it's first men's collection exclusively for it's Canary Wharf store. The collection is in collaboration with Italian designer Paolo Vandini and features fashion forward shoes and boots for today's modern man...

Kate Kuba
Cabot Place West
Canary Wharf
020 7715 5303

Cowen £84.99

Jamie £89.99

THE MAYOR'S THAMES FESTIVAL

Head over to the Southbank for a free, fun-filled weekend (12-13 September). This annual festival features hundreds of artists and dancers performing daytime displays and lively night carnivals, featuring 2000 costumed performers, floats and an impressive fireworks display, as well as activities for children and a River Race involving over 300 boats.

The festival runs from 12pm-10pm on both days and is FREE.

GROW GREEN

Philippa Craddock offers high-end plants, all delivered within two days. Collections are inspired by seasonal trends and are all handpicked, potted and packaged - an ideal and longer-lasting alternative to flowers. A thoughtful present, this environmentally friendly company encourages customers to re-use packaging (as hat boxes, practical storage solutions and bedside tables!). They also donate 2.5% of their profits to Growaforest.

Prices range from £35 to £75.
Available online at philippacraddock.com

